Dear Parishioners:

A friend of mine sent me a letter that listed the following. It is a compilation of actual roadside signs from across the country. Apparently, these signs were put together by an ad agency. I thought you might enjoy them. They are one-liners from God.

- + Let's meet at my house Sunday before the game. – God
- + Come on over and bring the kids. – God
- + What part of "Thou shalt not..." didn't you understand? – God
- + Love the wedding. Invite me to the marriage. – God
- + I love you... I love you... I love you... - God
- + Will the road you're on get you to my place? – God
- + Need directions? – God
- + We need to talk. – God
- + Don't make me come down there. – God
- + I can think of 10 things carved in stone. – God
- + Tell the kids I love them. – God
- + I don't question your existence. – God
- + Have you read my #1 bestseller? – God
- + You think it's hot here? – God
- + Keep using my name in vain and I'll make rush hour longer. – God
- + WARNING: Exposure to the SON may prevent burning! - God
- + Exercise daily: Walk with me. – God
- + A lot of kneeling will keep you in good standing. - God
- + Walmart isn't your only saving place! - God
- + Don't give up; Moses was once a basket case. - God
- + Try God; if it doesn't work out the devil will always take you back! - God

As you know, Fr. Bob and I have been giving catechetical talks at all the Masses these past four weeks on the topic of the Mass. I hope you have found them enlightening. I am interested in your feedback. If you found this catechetical style helpful, Fr. Bob and I would consider doing another series of catechetical sermons next year (ex. the sacraments). Just let us know. I believe that growing in the knowledge of our faith also leads to growing in the love of our faith. We need to know what is the best way for all of us to grow in that knowledge of our faith and what is the best way for all of us to grow in that love of our faith.

Remember: Together, we can do something beautiful for God.

In Christ,

Fr. Brian

OUR FATHER

The “Our Father” is called the “Lord’s Prayer” because it is the prayer that the Lord Jesus taught us. It is the most cherished prayer of the Church. The Our Father has been a part of the Mass since the beginning. It prepares us for reception of the Eucharist because the Our Father reminds us that we should have such a close relationship with God that we can call Him our “father”. In fact, the word that Jesus uses for father is “abba”. The word “abba” more accurately means “dad or daddy”. Jesus tells us that we ought to have such an intimacy with God that we can call him “daddy”. As a father takes care of his children, feeding them, caring for them, so too God the Father cares for us and God the Father feeds us with food from heaven, the gift of Christ in the Eucharist.

SIGN OF PEACE

St. Paul tells us that we should “greet one another with a holy kiss” (Romans 16:16). This part of the Mass goes back to the second century. At the Sign of Peace, we need to make peace with one another before we can receive the Eucharist. Saint Pope Innocent I noted that the Sign of Peace is a sign that we agree with everything that has already been accomplished at the Mass. You may also recall the words of Jesus: “So, then if you are bringing your offering to the altar and there remember your brother has something against you, leave your offering there before the altar, go and be reconciled with your brother first, and then come back and then present your offering” (Matthew 5:23-24). In order to properly receive Jesus in the Eucharist, we need to have a heart of peace and to be reconciled to one another.

LAMB OF GOD/FRACTION RITE

It was St. John the Baptist who pointed to Jesus and said: “Behold the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world (John 1:29). Jesus indeed is the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world. We also recall the great event of the Old Testament: the Passover. Just as the blood of the lamb saved the people of Israel, so too the bloody sacrifice of Jesus, the Lamb of God, saves us.

It is during this time, that the priest breaks the host and places a small particle of the host in the chalice. At the Last Supper, Jesus himself broke the bread and gave it to his disciples. The meaning of the fraction of bread is, that Christ is “distributing himself” to us. St. John Chrysostom states: “The Lamb of God is broken and distributed; broken but not divided. He is forever eaten yet is never consumed, but He sanctifies those who partake of Him. Interestingly enough, the phrase “breaking of the bread” was another name for the Eucharist.

In addition, the priest drops a part of the large Host into the Chalice as a sign of Resurrection - the reunion of Blood and Body, of Body and Soul.

We then respond by quoting the centurion in St. Matthew’s Gospel. The centurion approached Jesus asking for a cure for his ill servant. When Jesus offered to go to the centurion’s home to heal the servant, the centurion responded: “Lord, I am not worthy to have you under my roof; just give the word and my servant will be healed” (Matthew 8:8). While we are sinners and often fall short of God’s call, and while we may feel ourselves unworthy, Christ Himself makes us worthy to receive Him

HOLY COMMUNION

We have the option of receiving the Eucharist on our tongue or in our hands. Either option has a Scriptural basis.

For those who receive on the tongue, we are responding to the directive of Christ to St. Peter after the Resurrection: "Feed my sheep." (John 21: 15 – 17). When the Eucharist is placed on our tongues, it is an act of feeding. For those who receive the Eucharist on the hands, we are responding to the directive of Christ to the apostles at the Last Supper: "Take and eat." (Matthew 26:26).

If we receive the Eucharist on the hands, we should place one hand on top of the other. St. Cyril of Jerusalem instructed his converts to place one hand on top of the other, creating a throne with one's hands for they were to receive a king - Jesus Christ.

We say "Amen", "I believe", affirming that we believe that our Lord Jesus is truly present in the gift of Holy Communion.

After we receive the Lord Jesus in Holy Communion, it is appropriate to offer up our Eucharist for a special intention.

CLEANSING OF THE VESSELS

A few years ago, Pope Benedict directed that the sacred vessels (chalices and ciboria) be purified by a deacon or a priest. Since we believe as Catholics that Christ is present in the Eucharist, this simple action emphasizes the real presence of Christ.

Sharing the Gospel

When you love God, and you follow his example, it will show. You will be loving, patient, and kind. You will be honest and always do your best. You will work hard and share what you have. When you live for God, you make the world a better place.

Mission for the Week

Do a taste-test with boiled eggs. Eat one bite plain. Eat the rest seasoned with salt. The salt makes a big difference. Your love for God should make a big difference in the world, too.
