Dear Parishioners:

Start of school greetings from the rectory! I hope all goes well by you and, for our younger parents, that the start of school has begun well. I know it must be difficult to get back in to the school schedule after the summer vacation.

Many times, students will be asked to write a small essay on “what I did this summer.” I’d like to highlight what we did this summer here at Our Lady of Lourdes. We have been very busy this summer here at the parish. So, I thought I would highlight what Our Lady of Lourdes did this summer. As you all well know, an entirely new carpet and entirely new pews have been installed in the Church. In our parish school building, the second floor classrooms and hallway have been entirely refitted with energy efficient lighting and new ceilings. On the first floor, we have new hallway ceilings and energy efficient lighting as well. In addition, the school lobby has a new ceiling and lighting as well. During the year, we will be installing new ceilings and energy efficient lighting in the first floor classrooms (during Christmas break, winter break, Easter break). All the school hallways and stairwells have been painted as well. The school looks great and will look even better as the year progresses.

We also had a great “spruce up the parish” clean-up day this past Monday (Labor Day). Over 30 people helped out; a tremendous amount of work was accomplished. Weather permitting, we will also have another clean-up day on Columbus Day (Monday, October 8). Stay tuned...

Don’t forget our Italian Family Feast! It begins this Wednesday, September 12 through Sunday, September 16. Please come down and support the parish. If you have not turned in your chance books, please do so. Also, don’t forget the SUPER RAFFLE. You have to be in it to win it! The Feast is an important source of income for the parish and is necessary for us to maintain our numerous and various ministries. Bring a friend from outside the parish with you. I think you’ll have a great time.

Remember: Together, we can do something beautiful for God!

In Christ,

Msgr. Brian

23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

At 195 years old, the New York School for the Deaf is the second oldest school for the deaf in the United States. Begun through the efforts of a Baptist pastor, Rev. John Stanford, the school was officially chartered in 1817. As a prominent minister, Stanford served churches in Rhode Island, Pennsylvania, and New Jersey, before coming to New York. An 1835 memoir about his life describes how he devoted considerable time "to promote the comfort and moral improvement of the poor, without regard to denominational distinctions." When Stanford came to New York he preached the Gospel in the Alms House, which is where he first had the idea of developing a place of formal education for the deaf. Stanford recruited others to the cause, and the school in New York was begun.

In the Gospel this weekend, Jesus heals the deaf man who had a speech impediment. Jesus said to the man, "Ephphatha!" which translated means, "Be opened!" And even though Jesus told the crowd that witnessed the event to tell no one, they proclaimed the miracle everywhere. There was no stopping their astonishment.

People were impressed with Stanford's accomplishment in getting a school for the deaf chartered. Other states followed the example, starting their own institutions. What is often forgotten is that Stanford's work was rooted in the Gospel. The same devotion to the word of Christ is seen in the work of people like St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, who began the first Catholic school in the United States, and soon-to-be-saint Marianne Cope, who founded hospitals in New York that she insisted admit everyone regardless of religious belief or color. She went on to work with lepers, assisting St. Damian de Veuster on Molokai. The Gospel can push us to do amazing things. Stanford, Seton, and Cope were all motivated to help others improve their lives because of the Gospel message. It is the same Gospel we hear each Sunday.

Sharing the Gospel

Imagine what it would be like to be deaf-unable to hear music, voices or anything. In today's Gospel reading, Jesus did something amazing. Jesus healed a deaf man, so that for the first time he could hear and talk clearly. What would you listen to? What would you say?

Mission for the Week

Go to the library and find out how to say "Jesus loves you" in sign language. On the way home, pretend you cannot hear or speak.
