The Most Holy Trinity • Sunday, June 12, 2022

Dear Parishioners:

As you know, last week I published the letter from Archbishop Cordileone, Archbishop of San Francisco, in which he forbade Speaker of the House, Nancy Pelosi, to receive Holy Communion within the Archdiocese of San Francisco because of her public, adamant promotion of abortion up to the moment of birth. As you might imagine, this was not an easy decision on his part. Some people have been upset with the decision of Archbishop Cordileone. I would like to put some historical and theological insight into the issue.

In 1962, Archbishops Joseph Rummel excommunicated three prominent Catholics for their very public and obstinate promotion of racial segregation.

Excommunication is seen by the Church to be “medicinal”; it is to help the person see the seriousness of his/her actions, to repent and to come back to the Lord. The purpose is NOT to punish but to save souls. In fact, two of the three people that were excommunicated by Archbishop Rummel did renounce their segregationist stance and returned to the Church. The Church sees the abortion issue, the taking of an innocent human life, as at least as important as the issue of racial equality. Now, Archbishop Cordileone has not, in fact, excommunicated Speaker Pelosi but Archbishop Cordileone has informed her that she cannot receive Holy Communion due to her very public promotion of abortion.

The other issue involves the public nature of political figures such as Nancy Pelosi. They are not individuals who do not have an effect on others. Their public position affects millions of other people. In addition, not only do they endorse abortion laws but, in fact, they are expanding abortion and forcing all of us as taxpayers, to provide federal funds for abortion by overturning the Hyde Amendment.

Bishop Thomas Olmstead, Bishop of Phoenix, Arizona has written an Apostolic Exhortation entitled Veneremur Cernui – Down in Adoration Falling. The Apostolic Exhortation focuses on the Eucharist. Bishop Olmstead writes:

62. Thomas Aquinas painfully but clearly echoed Saint Paul’s warning in the hymn Lauda Sion Salvatorem reminding us that the “Bread of Life” becomes the bread of death for those who consume Jesus in the state of grave sin. “The good partake; the bad partake with, however, an unequal share of life and death. It is death to the bad, life to the good: behold how unlike is the result of like partaking.” When one receives Holy Communion unworthily, the Sacrament becomes a sacrilege; the spiritual medicine becomes for that person – it is frightful to say – a form of spiritual poison. When we do not really believe in Jesus, when we do not really seek to conform our entire life to Him and receive Jesus even though we know that we have sinned against Him, then this just leads to a greater sin and betrayal.

65. In this perennial teaching that is scriptural and clear, Holy Communion is meant to be the consummation of the loving union between Jesus the Bridegroom and His Bride the Church, between Him and each believer. The Church invites everyone to the Wedding Banquet while at the same she commits herself to helping everyone to arrive properly dressed in a purified baptismal garment, lest the greatest Gift – the Eucharist – becomes his or her spiritual destruction.

66. For this reason, the Church requires Catholic leaders who have publicly supported gravely immoral laws such as abortion and euthanasia to refrain from receiving Holy Communion until they publicly repent and receive the Sacrament of Penance. Not all moral issues have the same weight as abortion and euthanasia. The Church teaches that abortion or euthanasia is an intrinsically grave sin and that there is a grave and clear obligation for all Catholics to oppose them by conscientious objection. “In the case of an intrinsically unjust law, such as a law permitting abortion or euthanasia, it is therefore never licit to obey it, or to ‘take part in a propaganda campaign in favor of such a law or vote for it’” (Evangelium Vitae, 73).

The Aparecida document, which Pope Francis is acknowledged as one of the main authors during his time as Archbishop of Buenos Aires, teaches clearly: “We hope that legislators [and] heads of government ... will defend and protect [the dignity of human life] from the abominable crimes of abortion and euthanasia; that is their responsibility.... We must adhere to ‘eucharistic coherence,’ that is, be conscious that they cannot receive Holy Communion and at the same time act with deeds or words against the commandments, particularly when abortion, euthanasia, and other grave crimes against life and family are encouraged. This responsibility weighs particularly over legislators, heads of governments, and health professionals.”

67. In the current political climate of our country, the Church can be easily accused of favoring one party and singling out politicians of a certain party with such a teaching. However, the Church is only faithfully reaffirming its perennial teaching on the Eucharist and the worthy reception of Holy Communion which applies to every single person. Eucharistic coherence means that our “Amen” at Holy Communion includes not only the recognition of the Real Presence but also a communion bound together by embracing and living Christ’s entire teaching handed down to us through the Church.

Holy Communion is reserved for those who, with God’s grace, make a sincere effort to live this union with Christ and his Church by adhering to all that the Catholic Church believes and proclaims to be revealed by God. No one is perfect; we all sin. Communion is not just for the sinless. However, for those in a state of serious sin, they need to go to confession first.

While one can debate whether a bishop should impose a sanction on a Catholic politician who advocates abortion, I would at least like to see all Catholic public figures who support abortion to have the moral integrity to refrain from receiving himself/herself, as do other Catholics who find themselves in a state of sin.

In Christ,
Fr. Brian

The blankets can be brought to the Prayer Shawl Ministry meeting at 9:30am on the first Wednesday of each month in the Parish Center or dropped off at the Rectory. We also need volunteers who will help by donating white yarn for the blankets. The yarn can be dropped off at the rectory or brought to the meeting as well. Please share your special creative talent, generosity and love with the youngest of our parish.

TREAT YOUR DAD TO A CLEAN CAR FOR FATHERS DAY!

<https://witroop179.wixsite.com/bsatroop179>

Every day, people in our community are helped because of support from funds raised through the Catholic Ministries Appeal.

Today, consider a dad like James. James saw information about the Catholic Ministries Appeal at his local parish, and he knew he had to turn to the Church for help since he had nowhere else to go. James had been gainfully employed for more than 10 years when he began to fall ill. Soon his medical issues made it impossible for him to keep working and he was forced to go out on disability.

After paying the co-pays on his medications, his family's rent and utilities bills, James had very little left to purchase food and other necessities for his family.

It was hard for him to ask for help, but with nowhere else to turn, he did. Catholic Charities found him a specialist who assessed the family's needs and directed them to appropriate resources in their community. He went to his Parish Outreach, where his family received food that allowed them to make it through the month. James and his family received the help they so desperately needed.

Today, James is back to work and the family is doing well. "I am so thankful that I know there is somewhere I can turn, where there are people that care, people I can talk to, if I am ever in such a situation again," shared James.

Do you know a Senior, graduating from High School?

It is especially important to connect our graduating High School Seniors to the campus minister at their chosen college so they can connect with other Catholic students.

As our teens move onto college, you can help them continue their journey of faith.

Many colleges, secular and parochial, provide a Newman Center for incoming Catholic students. These Centers provide pastoral support and ministry to students, in addition to providing a space to meet other Catholic students interested in growing in their faith. This year, students will be able to connect immediately by downloading our newly created “Newman Connection App” on their phone!

Please send the graduate’s First & Last Name, e-mail address, and phone number as well as the Name of College, City/State they will be attending to Patti Anderson at: panderson@ollchurch.org.

The respective Newman Connection campus leader will be informed and will welcome the student when he or she arrives in the fall.

Sharing the Gospel

The disciples learned a lot from Jesus, but He knew they still needed to learn more. That's why Jesus asked God the Father to send the Holy Spirit to His friends. Jesus knew that the Holy Spirit would stay with them, to teach them everything Jesus wanted them to know.

Mission for the Week

As you read a Bible story tonight before bed, ask the Holy Spirit to teach you what Jesus wants you to learn.

Prayer

Dear God,
 I want the Holy Spirit to teach me more about Jesus, too.
